THE BIG READ—OCTOBER 2, 2018

The Big Read is an annual one-day, online event to help kick-start early childhood literacy. We simply ask all parents and caregivers to read one book to their child on that day. This is a worldwide campaign developed by the 1000 Books Foundation. Numerous studies have shown that parents who expose children to early literacy create a bond that teaches vocabulary, reinforces your role as your child's first teacher, and promotes quality time with the people they love the most. How do you get involved? 1) Read a book to your child on 10/2. 2) Take a picture and use the hashtag #TheBigRead2018 to post your involvement on social media.
