

1.3 Donation Policy

Items the Library Can Accept:

- Books published in the last 5 years and recent bestsellers (fiction and non-fiction)
- Current non-fiction books (health, craft, gardening, etc.)
- Clean copies of "classic" titles and books of historical significance
- DVD's, music CD's, and books on CD

Items the Library Cannot Accept:

- Books in poor condition (musty smelling, yellowed pages, broken bindings)
- Textbooks of any kind
- Magazines of any kind
- Dated information (old travel guides, encyclopedias, etc.)

Tax Receipts:

Donations may be tax-deductible. Receipts for donations will be given for tax purposes, but Library Staff cannot assess the value.

Due to limited space, we ask that donations are limited to once a month per patron family.

Please bring donations during normal business hours: do not place donations in the Library drop box.